

House Resolution No. 2008

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives proudly pause to recognize those special young people who have exemplified the finest qualities of citizenship and leadership by taking an active part in state government; and

Whereas, Adam G. Roehrick of Blue Springs, Missouri, has distinguished himself as an Intern for the Honorable Merrill M. Townley, State Representative of the 112th District; and

Whereas, Adam Roehrick joined the staff of Representative Townley for the First Regular Session of the Ninety-second General Assembly, since which time he has experienced the opportunity to observe firsthand the inner workings of state government and has gained valuable insight into the process by which laws are made; and

Whereas, Adam Roehrick has successfully demonstrated his abilities in the performance of such duties as conducting research, serving as a legislative aide and session attendant, helping with constituent services, and assuming various other responsibilities to make the office of Representative Townley run as smoothly as possible; and

Whereas, Adam Roehrick has earned recognition as a valuable asset to Representative Townley and the entire Missouri Legislature through the application of knowledge and the skills acquired prior to his tenure as an Intern and a variety of visible new skills which will be of tremendous value in the job market; and

Whereas, a student at the University of Missouri-Columbia, Adam Roehrick looks forward to a successful future full of achievement that could not be possible without his rich background of academic accomplishments and interest in state government; and

Whereas, it is entirely fitting and proper that this legislative body should join in paying special tribute to Adam Roehrick, a remarkable young man who has clearly demonstrated the qualities which will enable him to join the ranks of tomorrow's leaders:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, hereby proudly join the Honorable Merrill Townley in commending Adam Roehrick for his many important contributions to our State Legislature during the current session, and further extend to him our very best wishes for continued success and happiness in all his future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Adam G. Roehrick, as a mark of our esteem for him.
